

Humanitarian Relief Work and Challenges in Civil War

a guest lecture by

Dr. Richard Barta,

Doctors without Borders

Dr. Barta is a medical doctor who volunteered for a number of relief operations. He will lecture about his experience in a recent field mission with the association "Médecins Sans Frontières" (The French Doctors, Ärzte ohne Grenzen) in Ethiopia. His presentation will highlight the manifold problems a medical team faces in times of civil war. This lecture is held within the semester course on International Law. We will discuss the issues of sovereignty, non-state actors and humanitarian law.

Tuesday, February 2, 2 p.m.

Room, 237
